

MACERATED OIL OF MELISSA (MELISSA OFFICINALIS)

Physical Properties

Description	:	Plant extract obtained by filtration after maceration and stirring of plant In sunflower oil
Appearance	:	Orange/yellow liquid
Odour	:	Characteristic
Foreign Bodies	:	Nil

General:

Relative Density @ 15.5 Deg Cen	:
Refractive Index @ 20 Deg Cen	:

Additives

: As per customers requirements.

Pack Sizes

: 1 and 10 Litre drums,

Handling and Storage

Stable at normal climatic temperatures, for best results store in upright containers, in cool dark ambient conditions, with closure firmly intact.

Toxicological/Safety Information

Respiratory Protection	:	None required
Effect on Skin	:	Non hazardous, normal washing with soap and water to remove
Effect on eyes	:	Normal flushing to remove
Fire Hazard	:	Appropriate protection should be taken against fire for flammable organic liquid of low volatility - Avoid over heating
Spillage	:	Use suitable absorbent material followed by washing down using detergent solution.